IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of:
Five (5) months.

X **The court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be permitted to serve his term of incarceration in a in a Community Correction Center. The defendant has been a member of the same community for approximately 30 years. Permitting him to serve his sentence in a Community Correction Center may help him avoid the risk of losing his long-term home, a consequence that would be of no societal benefit. Moreover, the support of the community, with which the defendant has such a great familiarity and connection, would be an important and useful tool upon his reintegration into society and would act as a deterrent to the possibility that he may return to a course of conduct such as that for which he was sentenced. The defendant is also undergoing a course of medical treatment that could be interrupted, unnecessarily, if he is housed in a facility that is distant from the community where he has been obtaining medical treatment. Furthermore, the defendant resides with another person who is dependent upon him for assistance and support. If the defendant were to serve his period of incarceration in a Community Correction Center, an increased likelihood exists that he will continue to provide that person with needed assistance and support.

☐ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

X The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

X at 10:00 X a.m. ☐ p.m. on February 16, 2009 .

☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:

☐ before 2 p.m. on _____ .

☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

RETURN

I have executed this judgment as follows:

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : Twelve (12) months.

The first four (4) months of the defendant's term of supervised release shall be served as home detention. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device, at the direction of his assigned probation officer, during the term of home detention. The defendant will remain at his place of residence except for employment and other activities as approved by his assigned probation officer. During the home detention portion of his supervised release, the defendant must maintain telephone service in his dwelling that does not include: call forwarding, a modem, caller I.D. or call waiting. The defendant shall not have access to portable cordless telephones within his dwelling during the period of home detention and electronic monitoring. Home detention will commence on a date to be determined by the defendant's assigned probation officer. The defendant shall pay the costs of home detention on a self payment or co-payment basis as directed by his assigned probation officer.

The defendant shall report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours of his release from Bureau of Prisons custody. The defendant shall be supervised by the probation office for the judicial district in which the defendant resides.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime. The defendant shall submit his financial records to the assigned probation officer at the officer's request. The defendant shall not incur any new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the assigned probation officer, unless he is in compliance with the restitution installment payment schedule (see Sheet 6).

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two (2) random drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Department of Probation.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment. The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.
